JAMES CHADWICK-THE NEUTRON MAN

Author : ??????? ???? ???????????????????

Date : August 9, 2014

James Chadwick, desciple of Rutherford, was the great Neuclear scientist who discovered the sub atomic particle- neutron which answered the puzzle of the gap between atomic number & atomic weight of a substance.

Once again with respect n regards to Dr.Seha.Srinivasan, I dedicate this drawing of JAMES CHADWICK to him for his excellent write up on the great scientist n his contribution to Atomic Physics.
